THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

The People sit for the readings from scripture.

THE FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 26:1–11

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM • 91:1–2, 9–16

Qui habitat

Setting: Plainsong

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, abides under the shadow of the Almighty. He shall say to the Lord, "You are my refuge and my stronghold, my God in whom I put my trust." Because you have made the Lord your refuge and the Most High your habitation, There shall no evil happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. They shall bear you in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and adder; you shall trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet. Because he is bound to me in love, therefore will I deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I am with him in trouble; I will rescue him and bring him to honor. With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

THE SECOND READING

Romans 10:8b–13

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as able.

THE TRACT

Qui habitat

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 4:1-13

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glo - ry to you, Lord Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’”

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’”

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’”

Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer C

Celebrant People

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glo - ry to you for ev - er and ev - er.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were cre - a - ted and have their be - ing.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mer - cy, Lord, for we are sin - ners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he re - con - ciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

The Choir sings

THE SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis. Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini, Hosanna in excelsis.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel or stand, as able, as the Celebrant continues the prayer.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We ce - le - brate his death and re - sur - rec - tion, as we a - wait the day of his com - ing.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Ri - sen Lord, be known to us in the break - ing of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

A - men. A - men. A - - - men.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your abundant and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table; but you are the same Lord whose character is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

THE INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Everyone is welcome to come forward at this time. All baptized Christians are invited to receive Communion in both bread and wine. Please do not dip your bread in the wine. Gluten-free bread is available; please notify the priest as they come to you.

If you are not baptized, or if you prefer, you may receive a blessing from the priest instead: cross your arms over your chest to indicate this. If you do not wish to receive wine, cross your arms over your chest after receiving the bread. Please remain in place until the person next to you has received Communion.

Forum: Challenges to ministry for refugees. You're invited to attend our parish forum at 10 a.m. today in the Elizabethan Room. The Episcopal Church has a long history of working with immigrants: in the late 19th century port chaplaincies aided newcomers to America, and in the 1930s parishes of The Episcopal Church took up collections to fund steamship passage for people fleeing from the Nazis. Episcopal Migration Ministries (EMM) was established in the 1980s, and part of its work has been to help refugees become established in the United States. The ministry continues, but with new challenges. In our parish forum, Ramona Riecke will discuss how EMM, Organized Communities Against Deportations (OCAD), and other organizations have been formulating their response to recent developments.

Volunteers needed for Sarah's Circle. Come help with our Sarah's Circle meal next Thu., Mar. 13 at 1 p.m. Sarah's Circle is a Chicago-based nonprofit that provides housing, support services, and advocacy for women who are homeless or at risk. On the second Thursday of each month, Atonement volunteers cook and deliver a hot meal to the Sarah's Circle residents. We will meet in the Montgomery Hall kitchen to prepare a few simple side dishes and we are usually wrapped up by 3 p.m. In addition to monthly volunteer cooks, we are looking for backup drivers to take the meal to Sarah's Circle, which is located in Uptown. To volunteer or learn more, contact SC volunteer coordinator Patty Garland (cakes724001@yahoo.com) or Charlaire Reynolds (charlaire.reynolds@gmail.com).

Private confession during Lent. Father Charles will hear confessions Wednesdays in Lent, 6-6:45 p.m. (preceding Low Mass), and Mother Kate Guistolise will hear confessions on Fridays, 6-6:45 p.m. (preceding the Stations). Father Charles is also available to hear confessions by appointment. Go to frcharleseverson.appointlet.com to make an appointment. If you would prefer to make your confession to someone other than Father Charles, that is perfectly fine. He's happy to connect you with another priest. Please email him to make arrangements.

Online Bible study meets Tuesday nights. Join us for a weekly virtual Bible Study every Tuesday from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.. Each week, we'll dive into the three lectionary readings for the upcoming Sunday (excluding the psalm) in a participatory, discussion-based format. You can find the lectionary readings by clicking on the next Sunday's date at episcopalchurch.org/lectionary. Join online at meet.google.com/gos-kapr-owe Walk in the footsteps of Jesus' final hours. Beginning Fri., Mar. 14 at 7 p.m., and on the following Fridays throughout Lent, Atonement will commemorate the Stations of the Cross, an ancient tradition whereby Christians retrace the final steps of Jesus' walk through Jerusalem to the site of his Crucifixion. The service will include a short Lenten reflection and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Simple soup suppers before Stations. There will be a simple soup supper at Fridays 6 p.m. in Montgomery Hall prior to our service of Stations of the Cross. Would you be willing to provide the soup and bread for one of our soup suppers? The menu is simple: some sort of vegetarian soup (canned or boxed is fine) and bread for about 20 people. Mar. 14 is the only date still open. Please email Kate at office@atonementchicago.org if you would like to volunteer for that day.

Complete the diocese's strategic plan survey. Thank you to the more than 750 individuals who have completed the Diocese of Chicago Strategic Planning Survey so far. If you haven't yet filled it out, please do so and encourage your congregation to complete it by Mar. 5. The survey, which takes approximately 15 minutes to complete, is part of phase one of the process—discovery and information gathering. Learn more at episcopalchicago.org/strategic-planning-process
